

Vocalpoint! Seattle
Joseph Crnko, Music Director

Vocalpoint! Seattle is a distinguished group of young adults who bring together the best in ensemble vocal performance. With a unique focus on contemporary music, this group draws highly talented high-school-age youth from schools throughout the Puget Sound. Vocalpoint! Seattle is part of the Northwest Choirs, which includes the esteemed Northwest Boychoir. Aside from their own performance series, Vocalpoint collaborates with some of our region's finest ensembles, including the Seattle Symphony and Music of Remembrance.

The Seattle Symphony leads a long list of professional arts groups that rely on the talents of the Northwest Boychoir and Vocalpoint! Seattle. Recent performance have included being the featured artist in the Baroque Concert Series, Danny Elfman's Music from the Films of Tim Burton, Legend of Zelda, Music of the Mad Men Era, Berlioz' Requiem, Beethoven's Ninth Symphony and Carmina burana. In December, Vocalpoint! Seattle will again join the Northwest Boychoir in their annual presentation of A Festival of Lessons & Carols, including a performance presented by Seattle Symphony at Benaroya Hall. In the spring, the men of Vocalpoint will join the Northwest Boychoir for Choral Tradition.

Vocalpoint! Seattle members have continued their studies in the arts at the New England Conservatory of Music, Oberlin Conservatory, Manhattan School of Music, Yale School of Music, NYU Tisch School, and the Berklee School of Music. Graduates have appeared in motion pictures and network television shows, and performed on Broadway and in national tours of The Jersey Boys, Hairspray, Footloose, Brigadoon, Hair, and Up With People. Vocalpoint! Seattle offers three weeks of Rock 'n' Roll themed shows yearly – in October and May at the Broadway Performance Hall. Recent shows include Motor City Revue and Reelin' In The Years and Keep Playin' t that Rock 'n' Roll.
